Continuation of 4(e) Other: No proper amendment with respect to claim 1. any added limitation to the original claim should be presented by underlining such limitation. Any deletion of any limitation in the claim should be presented by strike out line through. Examiner suggests a comparison of the claim presented on 02/09/2002, with the one submitted on 03/10/2006 (there are one typed one with a added limitation which is non-compliance, and then a second one drafted by changing (adding, and deleting) the claim in hand writing), once the comparison is done, then any added limitation to original be presented by underlining such limitation, and any deletion according to the below paragraph.

Markings to Show the Changes:< All claims being currently amended must be presented with markings to indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version. The changes in any amended claim must be shown by strike-through (for deleted matter) or underlining (for added matter) with 2 exceptions: (1) for deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters, double brackets may be used (e.g., [[error]]); (2) if strike-through cannot be easily perceived (e.g., deletion of number "4" or certain punctuation marks), double brackets must be used (e.g., [[4]]). As an alternative to using double brackets, however, extra portions of text may be included before and after text being deleted, all in strike-through, followed by including and underlining the extra text with the desired change (e.g., _____ number 4 as number 14 as). An accompanying clean version is not required and should not be presented. Only claims of the status "currently amended" or "withdrawn" will include markings.

> Any claims added by amendment must be indicated as "new" and the text of the claim must not be underlined.< .
